How it Works:

I Want That Bag Consignment (IWTB) is a community based business that was developed to help individuals and home based businesses sell their items in a public venue. We solely operate on consignor cash flow to maintain our staffing, utilities, rent and businesses expenses and support local fundraisers, service groups and charities.

IWTB will not do returns on any items unless we value an item over $50.00. To ensure consigning with us is the right fit please make sure to not bring anything in that you would like back as some items could be subject to donations.

90 Day Contract: IWTB will make a concerted effort to sell items at the price initially set for a 30 day period. Upon 31 days of the agreement your items are reduced by 20% of original price. Upon 61 days of your agreement your items are reduced by 50% of the original price. IWTB retains the right to reduce items to facilitate a sale at anytime during the 90 day period or remove items for donation due to over flow in the store. Your unsold available items are yours to remove at anytime during the 90 day period (it is your responsibility to locate them).

It is the responsibility of the consignor to check in on your account. This is available by contacting IWTB by phone, website link email or social media pages via Facebook or Instagram. Please ensure if you do not get a response via email or social media to call the store especially for payout notices on regular business hours.

When bringing in your items we offer to sort your items and return to you what is not selected or we can donate unselected items on your behalf. IWTB is partnered with the Canadian Diabetes Association who accepts the donations in return for a small fee that is issued back to IWTB to support our efforts in community causes.

NO APPOINTMENT NEEDED: We accept items Monday - Friday during our regular operating hours. We like to encourage a no drop off policy on Saturdays unless that is the only day that works for you a phone call ahead is appreciated. We do appreciate a phone call ahead for drop offs of significant sizes at any one time.

All clothing items should arrive pre-screened for stains, or wear and appropriate season. We only accept top brand name or boutique fashions that are in next to new condition and must be within 3 years old or of classic style. Clothing must be clean, neatly folded in a bag, box or tote that can be returned to you. Please do not bring clothing in on hangers (as we use our own) and absolutely NO BLACK GARBAGE BAGS. Decor must be clean and well maintained.

Consignors will receive 50% of the final selling price exclusive to buyers fees and contract deductions. No payments are received until after an item sells and is recorded on the data sheet. Data sheets are updated by the 15th of each month. Funds accumulate on your account and are payable or readily accessible for in-store purchase credit upon request.
